

Mary Betsellie

9 Cheshire Street Huntington Station, New York, 11746 Mary.betsellie@midwifery.edu 631 901 4174

Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ To secure a preceptorship with a birth center or homebirth midwifery practice.○ Complete a minimum of 10 births and fulfill clinical hour requirements as primary under supervision student midwife
Training and Certifications:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Birth Arts International, Birth Doula certification – February 2012○ Hudson Valley Placenta, Placenta Encapsulation Specialist certification – February 2012○ Hypnobabies, Hypno-Doula certification – November 2013○ Sacred Pregnancy, Belly Bind and Sealing Ceremony certification - July 2014○ Spinning Babies○ Indigenous Remedies, Women’s Herbal Therapy certification, February 2016○ Breech Without Borders, September 2021○ Midwives College of Utah, Certified Professional Midwife, January 2017 - present○ NRP (Karen Strange) and CPR current
Work Experience:	2006 - present Founder, Sacred Space Birth Services Birth doula services in home and hospital, placenta encapsulation, herbal consults, mother blessings and postpartum birth rituals, belly binding, postpartum support. August 2015 - Present Co-Founder, Traditional Doula and Midwifery Arts Instructor for birth and postpartum doula skills and placenta encapsulation process, develop curriculum, marketing, accounting. August 2018 - Present Co-founding board member of NY CPM Inc. A nonprofit 501(c)(4), organization with a mission to expand midwifery licensure in New York State to include the Certified Professional Midwife (CPM) as an independent practitioner
Volunteer work:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ 2003-2006 Volunteered at local home birth support meetups○ 2005 Co-founder of LI Baby Wearing, peer support group○ 2008-2013 Participated in a doula program for local teens○ 2012-present Red Tent facilitator, free community support and education○ 2018 to present Founding board member NY CPM Inc., a nonprofit 501(c)(4), organization with a mission to expand midwifery licensure in New York State to include the Certified Professional Midwife (CPM) as an independent practitioner.

